EAST STIRLINGSHIRE FOOTBALL CLUB UNACCEPTABLE CONDUCT POLICY

East Stirlingshire Football Club will adopt a zero tolerance policy on unacceptable conduct at The Falkirk Stadium or at any away football stadia.

Unacceptable Conduct is defined as conduct which is violent or disorderly.

Violent conduct includes any actual, attempted or threatened physical violence against any person, or intentional damage to property.

Disorderly conduct includes:

Conduct which stirs up or sustains, or is likely or is designed to stir up or sustain, hatred or ill will against or towards individuals or groups of people because of:

- Gender, colour, race, nationality (including citizenship) or ethnic or national origin.
- Membership or presumed membership, of a religious group or of a social or cultural group with perceived religious affiliation.
- Sexual orientation.
- Transgender identity.
- Disability.
- Using threatening, abusive or insulting words or conduct.
- Displaying writing or any other thing which is threatening, abusive or insulting.

In addition to the above, the Offensive Behaviour at Football and Threatening Communications \(Scotland\) Act 2012 was passed by the Scottish Parliament on 14th December 2011 and became law on 1st March 2012. The Act criminalises behaviour which is threatening, hateful or otherwise offensive at a regulated football match including offensive singing or chanting. It also criminalises the communication of threats of serious violence and threats intended to incite religious hatred, whether sent through the post or posted on the internet. The Act will only criminalise behaviour likely to lead to public disorder which expresses or incites hatred, is threatening or is otherwise offensive to a reasonable person.

Any person engaging in unacceptable conduct may be subject to any, or a combination of the following:

- Removal from the Stadium
- Suspension from attending Official Matches involving East Stirlingshire Football Club
- Indefinite ban from attending Official Matches involving East Stirlingshire Football Club
- Report to the police and possible criminal proceedings
- A Football Banning Order
